Introducing a new approach to IB programme evaluation

February 7, 2020
IB Mid-Atlantic Association
Meeting outcomes

During our time together, we will:

• Quickly review the 2020 Programme standards and practices
• Explore the shift to a developmental model
• Review the redeveloped evaluation process
• Review the transition timeline

Overview

Section 1
2020 Programme standards and practices
2020 Programme standards and practices

The standards and practices framework

- Introduction
  What are the programme standards and practices?

- Purpose
  Sharing an important mission

- Environment
  Providing essential structures, systems and resources

- Culture
  Creating positive cultures

- Learning
  Ensuring effective education

Familiar structure + Redeveloped content and process = Significant improvements for schools

*Familiar structure: self-study, visit (or reading) and report
Shifts

• Greater focus on school learning
• Understanding schools as evolving systems, not as collections of discrete practices

The redevelopment uses what we know and believe about learning and applies it to the programme evaluation experience to drive school learning.

Shifting toward learning

Less of...

- Diffuse feedback
- Telling schools
- Avoiding MTBA’s as an outcome
- Self-study as a burden

More of...

- Focused feedback
- Asking schools
- Getting programme details right to insure that school efforts positively impact the student experience
- Positive impact on students as an outcome
- Self-study integrated with life of the school
Keeping what works

What won’t change

• The programmes

• Expectations that schools meet requirements

• Reflection as the primary impetus for change in the school's programme(s)
Improvements to self-study process

Self-study questionnaire
• Shorter, simpler, to be completed online

Programme documentation
• From authorization onward, documentation (i.e. policies, curriculum) is updated annually (or as needed) to ensure consistent review and implementation

Improvements to visits and reports

Visits

Focus on programme development and school learning

All DP schools will be visited for first evaluation

Reports

Feedback will be forward-looking and help school leaders set direction

Will provide more meaningful feedback that reflects the school context
Components of programme evaluation model

Section 2
Preliminary review

The school reviews, updates as necessary, and submits:

• school information

• required programme documentation*

• plans to address any requirement identified by the school as not in place that can’t be addressed before visit.

• the IB confirms that the programme documents and plans meet IB guidelines

*Very little change to programme documentation currently required.
Preliminary review checklist provides clear, consolidated list of what is needed

• Documentation checklist is in the Guide to programme evaluation

• The requirements or specifications that apply to the document are included.

• Also included: a summary of what “meets expectations” for the document.

Reflective self-study

• Self-assessment of the school’s fidelity of implementation of the IB programme(s) as expressed in the IB programme standards and practices.

• Reflection and analysis of programme development at the school. Schools will select an aspect of the programme as a focus. Examples are provided in the Guide to Programme Evaluation.

Programme development cycle

Schools engage in a continuous cycle of inquiry, action and reflection to develop their programmes.

Programme evaluation is one aspect of this continuous development, which starts during the process of becoming authorized as an IB World School and continues as the school more fully develops the programme(s).
Programme development planning

• Begins immediately following the school’s authorization and continues as long as the school offers the programme(s).

• May take different forms

• Reflects school needs and fits the school context.

A new programme development plan is created when the school determines that priorities or strategic goals shift.

Programme development plan template

Appendix 2: Programme development plan template

Programme development planning begins immediately following the school’s authorization to teach one or more IB programmes and continues as long as the school offers the programme(s). Programme evaluation supports the intentional and focused development of the school’s IB programme. Programme development planning may take different forms and will reflect the school’s context and strategic goals. A new programme development plan is created when the school determines that priorities or strategic goals shift. The plan reflects school needs and fits the school context. During programme evaluation, the school will be asked to evidence their planning, implementation, analysis, reflection and learning for one aspect of the programme.

The following are aspects of the programme that schools may select as their focus for programme evaluation:

- Learners (agency, IB learner profile, service/action, academic integrity)
- Learning and teaching (approaches to learning, approaches to teaching, inquiry, conceptual understanding, local and global contexts, teamwork and collaboration, access, learning diversity, inclusion, assessment, curriculum, language and identity)
- The learning community (collaboration, international-mindedness, leadership, learning environments, technology)

Use of the template is not required but is encouraged. Schools may develop their own templates, including the aspects of the process detailed below.

- A template provides guidance and support
- Use of the template is encouraged but not required.
- Schools may develop their own templates, including the aspects of the process detailed in the template.
Development area
What question does the school want to answer? What challenge is the school facing? What goal does the school want to achieve?

Rationale
Briefly summarize the reasons the school selected this area for programme development.

Planning
Identify one or two practices for each question below. Select from at least two areas of the PSP framework.

- What practices indicate the conditions that need to be in place?
- What practices indicate who is responsible for the work?
- What practices indicate how the work will be achieved?
- What practices indicate the goal, outcome or reason?

Reflection
Indicate if there were any changes to the practices used to develop this area of focus.
Evaluation visits/DP readings

The IB assigns IB educators trained for this role to review the school submission and conduct a school visit (or complete the reading report).

• The focus of the visit is programme development and school learning.

  - The team engages the school in a reflective conversation about on-going development and identifies areas for future or further development.

• The team will also identify requirements that the school does not have in place, as well as assess the school’s development of each standard.
Conclusion of the visit

• The team, along with the school’s pedagogical leadership team shares the findings from the visit with the school community. This includes the conclusions that the school has reached from the self-study as well as the preliminary findings of the team.

• The school revises, updates or shifts the focus of programme development using the conclusions of the evaluation.
The evaluation report

The IB provides the school with an evaluation report that captures the analysis and reflections of the school’s self-study as well as feedback from the IB.

The report includes:

- School, programme and leadership information
- Letter to head of school (revised for tone)
- School context (School and community description from the self-study)
- Programme strengths in each area of the framework
- Requirements that are not in place and evidence to be provided by the school
- School and evaluation team rating of the development of the 9 standards
- Feedback on the planning, analysis and reflection on programme development
  - Strengths
  - Areas for consideration
  - Opportunities for future or further programme development
- Conclusions of the IB evaluation team
- Conclusion of the IB on the school status as an IB World School.
Sharing the report (no change in expectation)

• Upon receiving the final report from the IB, the head of school shares the conclusions of the report with the school community.

Post-report follow-up

Section 3
Follow up to evaluation report

• Requirements not in place are matters to be addressed.

• School submits and IB reviews evidence, with the possibility of follow up visits to confirm.

• The school revises, updates or shifts the focus of programme development using the conclusions of the evaluation.
Support for on-going programme development

- IBWS manager has a follow-up call with the school to review the process and outcomes of self-study and evaluation visit, address concerns and help set direction

- Examples of effective practice are selected for sharing

Ongoing programme development

Self study and evaluation offer enhanced opportunities to connect the evaluation process with the school’s normal development cycle.
