IBMA Student Excellence Award Committee
Attn: Kerri Lancaster
Oscar F. Smith High School
1994 Tiger Drive
Chesapeake, VA 23320

2. Applicants must be IB students from IB Mid-Atlantic member schools.
3. An IBMA Student Excellence Award will be granted to one student enrolled in each level of the IB continuum (PYP, MYP, DP, IBCP), provided that the IBMA Student Excellence Award Committee determines that there is at least one applicant per program level who qualifies for the award.
4. The IBMA Executive Board determines the composition of the IBMA Student Award Committee and the total amount of scholarship monies available each year.
5. The IBMA Student Award Committee reviews and selects the award recipients each year. Committee members will not participate in the consideration of scholarship applications from their own schools.
6. The IBMA Student Award Committee gives weight to both the subjective qualities of the applicants and to quantitative data obtained from the application.
7. The IBMA Student Award Committee reviews applications in May and announces the award recipients no later than June 1. Awards are made directly to the recipient.
8. The Executive Board of IBMA has the authority to review all decisions of the Scholarship Committee, including appeals from nominating schools.
9. Before submitting your application packet, be sure to have the following documents included:

THE IB LEARNER PROFILE

The aim of all IB programs is to develop internationally minded people who, recognizing their common humanity and shared guardianship of the planet, help to create a better and more peaceful world.

IB learners strive to be:

Inquirers: They develop their natural curiosity. They acquire the skills necessary to conduct inquiry and research and show independence in learning. They actively enjoy learning and this love of learning will be sustained throughout their lives.

Knowledgeable: They explore concepts, ideas and issues that have local and global significance. In so doing, they acquire in-depth knowledge and develop understanding across a broad and balanced range of disciplines.

Thinkers: They exercise initiative in applying thinking skills critically and creatively to recognize and approach complex problems, and make reasoned, ethical decisions.

Communicators: They understand and express ideas and information confidently and creatively in more than one language and in a variety of modes of communication. They work effectively and willingly in collaboration with others.

Principled: They act with integrity and honesty, with a strong sense of fairness, justice and respect for the dignity of the individual, groups and communities. They take responsibility for their own actions and the consequences that accompany them.

Open-minded: They understand and appreciate their own cultures and personal histories, and are open to the perspectives, values and traditions of other individuals and communities. They are accustomed to seeking and evaluating a range of points of view, and are willing to grow from the experience.

Caring: They show empathy, compassion and respect towards the needs and feelings of others. They have a personal commitment to service, and act to make a positive difference to the lives of others and to the environment.

Risk-takers: They approach unfamiliar situations and uncertainty with courage and forethought, and have the independence of spirit to explore new roles, ideas and strategies. They are brave and articulate in defending their beliefs.

Balanced: They understand the importance of intellectual, physical and emotional balance to achieve personal well-being for themselves and others.

Reflective: They give thoughtful consideration to their own learning and experience. They are able to assess and understand their strengths and limitations in order to support their learning and personal development.

E. Service

Describe one service project in which you have participated. Reflect on what you learned from this experience and share how the project impacted the lives of others. If you have not participated in a service project, describe a project that you would like to plan and explain the impact you hope it will have on others (100 words or less). You may attach a typed response to your application, if you prefer.
