December 1, 2021 (Wed)

February 4, 2022

June 3, 2022

Our mission

IBMA will educate all members by sharing best practices through professional development.

IBMA will develop and maintain a close working relationship with the IBA office in Bethesda.

IBMA will gather regular and on-going feedback from membership.

Today's Agenda

- Welcome/Housekeeping
- IBMA Business Items
- Bootcamp Update
- Faculty Excellence Awards
- Programme-specific Breakouts

IBMA Excellence Award -

PYP - Amy Knoblauch: Monarch Global Academy

“Amy is a champion for inquiry and consistently seeks out opportunities for her own professional growth, so she can turnkey those new skills, strategies, and habits of mind in her classes. Amy is a phenomenal educator that truly embodies the learner profile and lives the MGA Mission, ‘We are lifelong learners inspiring lifelong learners,’ every day!”

IBMA Excellence Award -

MYP - Katlyn Bennett: Thomas Jefferson Middle School

“Katlyn has helped ensure MYP unit planning is a core part of the school culture in general and her department. She has helped the IB Coordinator create differentiated professional development self-paced online modules for teachers to learn and apply IB MYP assessment criteria. Finally, Katlyn has helped promote the IB Learner Profile across the school and international mindedness with book talks by international authors for the whole school.”

IBMA Excellence Award -

DP - Danine Falcon: Central High School

“Danine has spearheaded our IB Russian program here at Central High School. She has made our school's growing Russian program a part of the distinguished National High School Slavic Honor Society. More and more IB students take Russian each year, and it is something that stands out in their college applications. Ms. Falcon is committed and dedicated to her subject area and IB students.”

IBMA Excellence Award -

CP - Linda Frantz: South Lake High School

“Mrs. Frantz is our media center specialist who has been invaluable to all three programs. Mrs. Frantz has helped the CP coordinator identify databases that assist the students in researching ethical dilemmas. She has gone so far as to suggest to the county entire databases dedicated to ethics. She was pivotal in developing the writers retreat for DP and CP students which was instrumental in providing both academic and SEL supports.”
